Through this short but powerful presentation learn how to create compelling goals that really inspire you to action. Avoid pitfalls of empty desires and uncover the goals that will serve as a catalyst to a more purposeful life. This presentation is offered by;

Jeanette Stevenson ACC, CPCC
Founder of Point Of You Life Coaching

Ms. Jeanette Stevenson CPCC, ACC is the president and Founder of "POINT OF YOU", a coaching firm based in Kenosha, Wisconsin. She provides one-on-one and group coaching services for individuals and corporations. Ms. Stevenson is a graduate of the Coaches Training Institute and has also received her CPCC (Certified Professional CoActive Coach), a certification recognized by the International Coach Federation and one which places her within the top 10% of trained coaches in the industry.

In addition to her personal and corporate practice, Jeanette is a sought after public speaker and retreat / workshop facilitator. She has developed a niche in working with women and has a wide variety of group offerings. Whether teaching her attendees how to create their life's vision, step out of their comfort zone to reach for their dreams, weave creativity into their everyday lives, or place themselves first so they can better serve the world.
